MYSORE DISTRICT.

Dated 4th January 1912.

It is hereby notified that, in satisfaction of arrears of land revenue due by Shamanna and sixteen others of Jodi Halthi village, revenue defaulters, the undermentioned immovable property will be sold by public auction at the village of Jodi Halthi in the Taluk of Nagamangala in the Mysore District, on 29th February 1912.

The sale will commence at 11 A.M., and the property will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve. The sale will be conducted by the Sub-Division Officer, French Rocks.

2. The amount of revenue payable by the purchaser on the property is Rs. 896-11-10, as shown in detail in the statement at foot.

3. Purchasers will be required to deposit twenty-five per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the date of the sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made, nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the property shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulters or any person acting on their behalf, or claiming an interest in the property, tender the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before the property is knocked down.

6. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner or by some other officer duly authorized to confirm the same.

7. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession, and the property will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale, signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description or in estimated extent.

8. Provided, parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within thirty days from the day of sale, and also to appeal to higher authorities against his order within the time prescribed by law, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
